Arts and Culture Working Group

1. Currently we meet every last Friday of the Month. We missed our last meeting, but we will be having our next meeting March 28th at 5:00 PM Pacific, 8:00 Eastern. It's an open meeting and we are welcoming folks in.

2. We've currently heard from or are in communication with folks from both the ATL and Detroit Social Forum, and we've connected with folks from both Philadelphia and Jackson. Philadelphia has started local organizing meetings.

3. Via the work of William Copeland, the Arts and Culture WG has reconnected with the Healing Justice group, and we've started to explore that relationship. We're hoping that will result in at minimum the reengagement of the Healing Justice Group and the ongoing development of the real integration of the Arts and Culture Work.
